Safety Tips / Announcements

A Message from Sheriff Mike Chapman:

“First responders choose a life of service and sacrifice. Tragically, it can sometimes be one of ultimate sacrifice, as it was for Firefighter Trevor Brown on February 16. Trevor was an extraordinary professional, a devoted husband, and a loving father of three young children. We will never forget his sacrifice, and we grieve for his family.

The Celebration of his Life on March 4, 2024, was attended by an outpouring of our caring community -- family, friends, and first responders from throughout Loudoun County and the region, with thousands more watching remotely.

It was an honor for me, the LCSO, and our first responder partners to be a part of this solemn celebration, to show our respect for Firefighter Brown and those injured that day, and our gratitude for all fellow first responders.

The loss of Firefighter Brown is a stark reminder of how precious and fragile life is, and the dangers first responders face every day. We are brothers and sisters, always aware that any one of us could give our life in service to protecting others.

The LCSO will continue to do all we can to support the Brown family, the firefighters injured that night, and all members of Loudoun’s firefighting and emergency response community, just as I know they would do for us in the law enforcement community. We stand with you and always will.”
