

Daily Incident Report

Tuesday, April 02, 2024

Loudoun County Sheriff's Office (LCSO) Daily Incident Reports are published Monday through Friday, except holidays. Incidents reported are those most notable for news media and general community interest. Please visit www.sheriff.loudoun.gov/dailycrime to review prior Daily Incident Reports (going back 30 days), and go to www.sheriff.loudoun.gov/findmystation to determine your geographic station area.

The LCSO also provides an online mapping and analysis service through www.sheriff.loudoun.gov/CityProtect that combines the value of law enforcement data with Google-based mapping and an analytics module. Up-to-date information on nearly all LCSO calls for service may be viewed through this service.

Scams

Date	Location	Incident
04/01/2024	Sterling	Crypto Currencies Scam: The complainant reported meeting a female (Natasha Singh) via a Facebook dating application. During the time he and Natasha were corresponding, she introduced him to crypto currencies and was able to persuade him into investing money. Natasha provided him with a link for him to invest in and the complainant was able to see his investment grow. When his money got to a certain amount, he attempted to withdraw it but was unable and told he needed to pay more money to get his money out. Natasha then encouraged him to invest more money, but the complainant declined. This upset Natasha who in turn blocked the complainant. This is when he realized he was the victim of a scam. The case is under investigation. SO240005844

04/01/2024	Ashburn	Munchkin Kitten Scam: Complainant reported that she found a group on Facebook selling Munchkin Kittens. She reached out to the group who told her what the cost of the kittens would be. The complainant paid the amount via Zelle and agreed to meet at a location in Maryland on a specific date. The seller then reached out to the complainant and informed them she was not going to be able to meet her but would ship the kitten via a transport company to her. The transport company then reached out to the complainant and asked her to pay the shipping cost, which she did via Zelle. The complainant was then called back and told she needed to pay for pet insurance. This is when she realized she was the victim of a scam. SO240005827
