

County GIS Awards

- 30 Years of Excellence in GIS \(2016\) Presented by Esri for modeling continued innovation, efficiency, and support of community interests with GIS technology
- Virginia Association of Counties 2015 Achievement Award for an Innovative County Program “The Use of Volunteer GIS to Map Park and Trail Amenities”
- The National Association of Counties 2015 Achievement Award “The Use of Volunteer GIS to Map Park and Trail Amenities”
- The National Association of Counties 2015 Achievement Award “Dulles Community Outreach Program”
- Governor’s Technology Awards, Finalist Cross-Boundary Collaboration on IT Initiatives, Northern Virginia Regional Routable Centerline Project, 2012
- ESRI Special Achievement in GIS \(2011\) presented as a shared award to Loudoun, other Northern Virginia jurisdictions, and the Virginia Geographic Information Network for mapping and routing efforts to improve 911 Computer Aided Dispatch (CAD) systems across jurisdictional boundaries
- ESRI Special Achievement in GIS \(2010\) presented for sustained leadership in land records management supporting accuracy, maintenance, and accessibility of data
- Digital Counties Survey 2014, 2009, 2008 Winner
- The National Association of Counties 2001 Achievement Award “GIS Mapping for Fire-Rescue Station Siting”
- The National Association of Counties 1997 Achievement Award “Improving Access to Land Related Information”
- Urban and Regional Information Systems Association (URISA) Exemplary Systems in Government Award, Small Municipalities Category, 1991