Loudoun County Auction Features Bargains on Tire Cables, Children's Toys and More

Just in time for winter driving, the current Loudoun County surplus auction features tire cables designed to provide traction on slippery roads. Other items include children's toys, children's DVDs and Blu-ray Discs, laptop computers and other miscellaneous items. The auction closes at 9:30 a.m., Thursday, January 14, 2021.

Detailed information and photographs of the items for sale are online at publicsurplus.com/sms/loudoun.va/browse/home.

Loudoun County sells selected items online through Public Surplus, which was created specifically for public agencies. Anyone interested in bidding on the items must be registered with www.publicsurplus.com. Registration is free, however, a 9.75% buyer's premium is charged to all purchases. Loudoun County government and school employees are subject to bidding limitations under the auction terms and conditions, which are available on the Public Surplus site.

Loudoun County has specific hours for buyers to pick up their items at 14 Cardinal Park Drive, Suite 106, in Leesburg. Items must be picked up by appointment, 9:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m. or 1:00 - 3:00 p.m. The dates for items to be picked up are noted on each auction item listed on the Loudoun County auction site.

In keeping with Loudoun County's efforts to slow the spread of COVID-19, successful bidders will be required to wear face coverings and practice social distancing while on county premises to pick up their items. In addition, these measures apply to those coming to a scheduled viewing for items such as vehicles prior to the auction closing date.

More information about the sale of Loudoun County government surplus items is online at loudoun.gov/surplus.

The current Loudoun County government online surplus auction includes bargains on a variety of items, including tire cables, children's toys and children's DVDs and Blu-ray Discs.
