WHY PROGRAM LEVELS?

The safety and well being of our participants is paramount and we want them to get the most out of every activity offered.

A participant may start our programs at a certain level but over time their life skills, mobility, and cognitive abilities may change.

We assign levels to our activities based on research and experience.

Please contact us if you have any questions about your participant.

PARTICIPANT CODE OF CONDUCT

Be respectful to peers, staff, volunteers and public.

Listen and follow all directions from staff and volunteers.

Stay with your assigned group and leader.

Keep hands and feet to self.

Use friendly language and tones of voice.

Use equipment and supplies appropriately.

NOTICE

It is the goal of the Adaptive Recreation program for all participants to have an opportunity for a safe and enjoyable experience. Failure to follow the code of conduct may result in verbal/written warnings, suspension or removal from future activities and programs. At any time, should Adaptive Recreation staff be concerned that a program or activity is not in the participant's best interest or well-being, staff will contact the participant and/or caregiver to discuss available options.

PROGRAM OUTLINE

PROGRAM VISION

To provide individuals of all abilities with opportunities to choose participation in leisure programs, which may enhance their quality of life and foster respect for and acceptance of diversity within the community.

PROGRAM MISSION

Our mission is to provide a safe, nurturing and fun environment for individuals of all abilities. We strive to create opportunities that foster individual growth and success; building partnerships with participants, families and the community for new, innovative, successful and inclusive opportunities.

PROGRAM IMPLEMENTATION

Adaptive Recreation staff categorize all activities by skill level in an effort to provide safe and successful activities for all participants, staff and volunteers. In order to maintain safety and success, we ask you to carefully consider your participants' needs.

2018 SUMMER EVENTS

READERS THEATRE

Sunday, May 20, 6:30p

Meet your friends at the Arts Center at 6:30 p.m. to enjoy a "sneak peek" of an original, possibly up and coming musical, "Princess Quinlynn, Fairy Protector" written by our very own Dee Cashin! This will be presented in a Reader's Theatre style, and held in the lobby gallery. Enjoy the show while sitting with your friends munching popcorn and sipping drinks! This social is FREE, just register with sign up genius link and show up!

VSA MOVIE NIGHT

Thursday, June 14th, 7p

VSA families will gather together to watch beloved VSA musicals from the past. This was a HIT last year! During intermission we will gather in the lobby for snacks and fellowship. These two socials are FREE, just register with sign up Genius link and show up!

SWEARINGEN & KELLI: MUSIC OF SIMON & GARFUNKEL

Saturday, June 30, 8p,

Meet your other VSA friends at the Arts Center for this night of historical music. Returning to the Franklin Park Arts Center stage after a sold out show in 2016, Swearingen and Kelli are a modern echo of the classic singer-songwriters of the '60s and '70s. They will take the audience on a musical tour of Simon & Garfunkel's best-loved hits, presented in the same intimate harmonies that made them famous. Spend a summer evening reminiscing with us!

Tickets : $15/PERSON (Pay At Door)
Register with Sign up Genius Link.

TANABATA: A JAPANESE CELEBRATION

Sunday, August 5, 6p

Meet other VSA friends at the Arts Center for this popular annual event: Celebrate this traditional festival with song, origami, story-telling and a planetarium show. Hiroya Tsukamoto, a one-of-a-kind composer, guitarist and singer-songwriter from Kyoto, Japan, will perform in the lobby while guests dress in kimonos and try origami. After a short break for tea and egg rolls, guests will enjoy a planetarium show in the theater that explains the astrological story tied to this celebration. Then everyone will go to the Franklin Park pond to release floating lanterns. A peaceful, magical and cultural evening for all generations.

Tickets: $10/person or $35/family (Pay At Door)
