Something Fishy at the Loudoun Surplus Auction: 150-Gallon Aquarium is among Featured Items

There's something fishy in this month's Loudoun County surplus auction! Among the items for sale is a 150-gallon aquarium, including a stand and accessories. The nautical theme continues with scuba valves and regulators also for sale. Other items include utility vehicles and picnic tables as well as typical office surplus such as furniture, computers and other miscellaneous items. The auction closes at 9:30 a.m., Thursday, July 15, 2021.

Detailed information and photographs of the items for sale are online at publicsurplus.com/sms/loudoun,va/browse/home.

Loudoun County sells selected items online through Public Surplus, which was created specifically for public agencies. Anyone interested in bidding on the items must be registered with www.publicsurplus.com. Registration is free; however, a 9.75% buyer's premium is charged to all purchases. Loudoun County government and school employees are subject to bidding limitations under the auction terms and conditions, which are available on the Public Surplus site.

Loudoun County has specific hours for buyers to pick up their items at 14 Cardinal Park Drive, Suite 106, in Leesburg. Items must be picked up by appointment, 9:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m. or 1:00 - 3:00 p.m. The dates for items to be picked up are noted on each auction item listed on the Loudoun County auction site.

More information about the sale of Loudoun County government surplus items is online at loudoun.gov/surplus.

The current Loudoun County government online surplus auction includes bargains on many items, including a 150-gallon aquarium, a Kubota diesel tractor with front loader and picnic tables,
