Loudoun Allocates American Rescue Plan Act Funding to Nonprofits and Faith-Based Organizations

Loudoun County has allocated nearly $2.5 million to 36 local nonprofits and faith-based organizations that are working to mitigate the negative impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic. The allocation is part of the county's American Rescue Plan Act of 2021 funding.

Following approval of the funding program by the Board of Supervisors in May 2021, the county accepted requests in June and July from local organizations seeking funding for programs in one of four categories: emergency food assistance, COVID-19 service expansion, service interruption and nonprofit service continuity.
