Loudoun Clerk of the Circuit Court Offers Virtual History Program Oct. 14

Loudoun County Clerk of the Circuit Court Gary Clemens is pleased to announce the next historic records virtual program offered by the Clerk's Historic Records Division. The next program, entitled "The Ground Holds Secrets: Courthouse Archaeology," will be offered Thursday, October 14, 2021, from 6:30 - 8:00 p.m.

The Clerk's Historic Records team, in partnership with the Loudoun County Department of Planning and Zoning will offer this virtual program. Joining Historic Records Manager Eric Larson will be Loudoun County Archaeologist Stephen Thompson and Principal Planner Heidi Siebentritt from the Department of Planning and Zoning. This program will discuss the history of the courthouse complex and the role of archaeology in county development.

Information on how to access the virtual meeting will be posted at loudoun.gov/clerk-archives.

Items found on the Loudoun County Courthouse grounds during past archaeological explorations include a brick from the site of a jail, a bottle, pottery shards, a Civil War era belt buckle, pipe stems and an oyster shell.
