Commissioner of the Revenue to Hold Real Estate Tax Relief Seminars 65 or Older or Disabled? – Learn about Loudoun’s Real Estate Tax Relief Program; Information Sessions Scheduled

Loudoun County Commissioner of the Revenue Robert S. Wertz Jr. has scheduled free information sessions to familiarize residents with the eligibility criteria for the county’s real estate tax relief program.

Loudoun County homeowners 65 or older or with disabilities who are below established income and wealth limits may benefit from a reduction in the amount of property taxes they pay. In July 2021, the Board of Supervisors raised the program’s upper income limits. Qualified applicants for real estate relief must have a gross combined income less than $77,000 and net worth less than $920,000. Up to $10,000 in income of a spouse or relative residing in the home is excluded from the income calculation. Program participants saved almost $8 million in real estate taxes last year .

Find out about the county’s tax relief program and have your questions answered at the free, upcoming sessions. No appointment or RSVP is required to attend. All sessions begin at 10:30 a.m.at the following dates and locations:
