Loudoun Arbor Day Photo Contest 2022: ‘Trees That I’m Thankful For’

The annual Loudoun County Arbor Day tree photo contest is underway. The theme of this year’s contest is “Trees That I’m Thankful For.” Entries are being accepted through Monday, April 18, 2022. They will be included in the county’s virtual Arbor Day Celebration, which will be posted in May on the Loudoun County website at loudoun.gov/trees.

Contest Rules

- Entries must be a photo of a single tree or group of trees that are in Loudoun County.
- The photos must have been taken by the entrant. There is a limit of two entries per person.
- Only digital pictures will be accepted. JPEGs are acceptable. High resolution photos are encouraged.
- Email photos to Loudoun County Urban Forester Mike Ronayne of the Department of Building and Development at michael.ronayne@loudoun.gov.
- Include the photographer’s contact information (name, phone number and email) as well as the approximate location of the tree and tree species, if known, and a brief explanation of why the photographer is thankful for the tree or trees in the photo.

Awards will be distributed to the top three photos and the winners will be notified. Photos will not be returned and will become the property of the Loudoun County Arbor Day Committee.
