Expanded Early Voting Opportunities begin Feb. 24 for March 5 Primary Election

Loudoun County election officials remind voters that they will have expanded opportunities for in-person early voting for the March 5, 2024, presidential primary election beginning Saturday, February 24. The last day to vote early in person is Saturday, March 2.

Extended Hours at the Office of Elections and Voter Registration

Extended hours for early voting at the Office of Elections and Voter Registration, 750 Miller Drive, Suite 150, in Leesburg will include Saturday, February 24, and Saturday, March 2, 9:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m. Early voting at the Office of Elections will continue Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. – 5:00 p.m. with the hours extended to 7:00 p.m. February 27 and 29.

Expanded Early Voting Hours at Satellite Locations

Additional early voting sites at Carver Senior Center in Purcellville, Claude Moore Recreation Center in Sterling and Dulles South Recreation Center in South Riding will be in operation beginning Saturday, February 24. The early voting hours at the satellite locations have been expanded to include weekdays, Monday, February 26 through Friday, March 1. Exact dates, times and locations are posted at loudoun.gov/VoteEarly.

Voter Registration Deadline

Although the deadline to register to vote in the March 5 election or to update current voter registration information was February 12, voters may register and vote a provisional ballot. Information about Same-Day Voter Registration is available from the Virginia Department of Elections.
