Loudoun County Accepting Property Tax Exemption Applications from Charitable Nonprofits

Loudoun County Commissioner of the Revenue Robert S. Wertz Jr. is accepting applications from charitable nonprofit organizations seeking an exemption from Loudoun County real and/or personal property taxes for the 2025 tax year. The deadline to apply for the exemption is Monday, April 1, 2024.

Most charitable nonprofit organizations are not automatically exempt from local property taxes in the Commonwealth of Virginia, even those that may be exempt from federal income taxes. The filing of an application with the Commissioner of the Revenue is the necessary first step to obtain a local real estate or personal property tax exemption.

Completed applications should be submitted to the Commissioner of the Revenue postmarked no later than April 1, 2024. Any tax exemption, if granted, would become effective January 1, 2025.

Nonprofit organizations that have already been provided an exemption from Loudoun County property taxes need not file an application.

Organizations that are unsure of their taxable status may contact the Exemptions and Deferrals Division of the Office of the Commissioner of the Revenue at 703-737-8557 or at trcor@loudoun.gov.

More information, including a link to the application for property tax exemption, is available at loudoun.gov/taxrelief.
