Northern Virginia Housing Expo March 23 Features Resources for Homebuyers and Renters

Loudoun County encourages community members to attend the 14th annual Northern Virginia Housing Expo on Saturday, March 23, 2024, from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. at Charles Colgan High School, 13833 Dumfries Road in Manassas.

Anyone looking for an affordable place to live in Northern Virginia is encouraged to visit the expo, which will showcase both homeownership and rental opportunities and resources throughout the region.

The free event will feature workshops, an exhibit hall and one-on-one financial coaching sessions. Staff from the Loudoun County Department of Housing and Community Development will participate in a panel to share information on Loudoun County programs for first-time homebuyers. Other workshop topics include credit scores, senior housing, reverse mortgages, household budgeting and a home sale market overview.

The expo is a cooperative effort of Arlington, Fairfax, Loudoun and Prince William counties; the cities of Alexandria, Falls Church and Manassas Park; Virginia Housing; the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (District of Columbia/National Capital Area Office); Northern Virginia Association of Realtors®; and the Metropolitan Washington Council of Governments.

Details about the event as well as a year-round virtual exhibit hall are available at novahousingexpo.org.
