Phone Scams

Scammers Claiming to be Law Enforcement & Utility Companies!

Law Enforcement: Recently several residents reported receiving calls from a person claiming to be a Sgt. Jackson with the warrants division of the Loudoun Sheriff's Office. The caller claims you have a warrant issued for your arrest and you need to pay monies with a money card.

Utility Company: Several residents and businesses reported receiving calls from a person claiming to be with Dominion Power. In each case, the caller said the victim owed back payments and their electricity would be disconnected if they did not pay.

Utility companies and government agencies will NOT contact you demanding immediate payment by money cards!
