Loudoun County Hosts Panel Discussion on Homelessness February 26

Loudoun County is sponsoring a Community Conversation on Homelessness Tuesday, February 26, 2019, from 9:00 to 11:00 a.m., at the Loudoun County Voter Registration Office, 750 Miller Drive in Leesburg 20175.

The free event will feature a panel presentation with some of the county's homeless service providers. The presentation will be followed by a question-and-answer session and roundtable discussion about ways to best serve individuals and families experiencing housing instability.

The panelists include representatives of:

- Good Shepherd Alliance
- Loudoun Abused Women's Shelter
- Loudoun County Continuum of Care
- Loudoun County Public Schools
- Loudoun County Youth Shelter
- Mobile Hope
- Volunteers of America Chesapeake

Members of nonprofit agencies and other community groups are encouraged to attend as are members of the general public.

Seating is limited. Pre-registration is required. Anyone interested in attending may find more information and a link to register at www.loudoun.gov/homelessness. More information about the event also is available by contacting Information and Referral Manager Christine Hillock of the Loudoun County Department of Family Services at 571-258-3516 or Christine.Hillock@loudoun.gov.
