The Loudoun Workforce Resource Center will host a Staffing and Temporary Employment Job Fair Monday, February 25, 2019, from 1:00 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. on the second floor of the Shenandoah Building, 102 Heritage Way NE in Leesburg.

Immediate opportunities are available in the fields of human resources, information technology, accounting, administrative support, supply chain and light industrial. The Loudoun Workforce Resource Center, a Virginia Career Works affiliate, has a long history of helping businesses identify well-qualified applicants and helping those looking for work find the right fit. At the same time that employers are adding jobs to the economy, unemployed or underemployed workers are looking to enter the job market or move into better-suited careers.

More information about the job fair and the Workforce Resource Center is available by contacting Employer Services Coordinator Michael Bozeth at 703-777-0688. Information about the center is also online at www.loudoun.gov/wrc.
