Six Things to Know about the June 11, 2019, Primary Election in Loudoun

Loudoun County voters will go to the polls Tuesday, June 11, 2019, for a primary election. Here are six important things Loudoun County election officials would like voters to know before going to the polls:

1. Know When to Vote

Polls in Loudoun County will be open from 6:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m., Tuesday, June 11, 2019. The last day to vote absentee in person is Saturday, June 8. Absentee voting is taking place at the Loudoun County Office of Elections and Voter Registration. Details are online at loudoun.gov/JunePrimary.

2. Know Where to Vote

Voters will cast their ballots at their normal polling location. Anyone who is not sure about where to vote may check their voter registration card or look up their polling place and related information online at vote.elections.virginia.gov. A list of polling places in Loudoun is available at loudoun.gov/polls.

3. Bring Your Voter ID with You

4. Know Which Ballot to Choose and What Races are on the Ballot

The Commonwealth of Virginia does not recognize party affiliation when registering citizens to vote. In precincts holding both a Democratic and Republican Primary, voters will be asked to choose which party's ballot they wish to vote.

The offices on the primary ballot are:

- Democratic Party: The State Senate seats in Districts 31 and 33, the House of Delegate seat in District 87, the Sterling District seat on the Board of Supervisors and the Sheriff.
- Republican Party: The State Senate seat in District 13.
