- Development of strategies for the use of park and ride lots as the county transitions to Metrorail service;
- The use of the Metrorail parking garages in the interim period between completion of the structures and the start of Metrorail service; and
- The future uses of technology by the Loudoun County Transit system, such as autonomous transit vehicles and electronic, real-time information signs at bus stops.

In addition, representatives of the Commission on Aging, the Disability Services Board, the Loudoun Health Council and the Transit Advisory Board are scheduled to provide comments to the Board of Supervisors on transit-related matters.
