Current Loudoun County Surplus Auction Features Children's Items, Balance Beam, Ballet Barre, “For Dummies” Books and More

The current Loudoun County government online surplus auction features a variety of items, including a number of children’s DVDs and Blu-ray Discs, a balance beam, ballet barre, a large selection of the “For Dummies” series of instructional books as well as vehicles, computers, office furniture and other miscellaneous surplus items. The auction will close at 9:30 a.m., Thursday, October 10, 2019.

Detailed information and photographs of the items for sale are online at www.publicsurplus.com/sms/loudoun,va/browse/home.

Loudoun County sells selected items online through Public Surplus, which was created specifically for public agencies. Anyone interested in bidding on the items must be registered with www.publicsurplus.com. Registration is free, however, a ten percent buyer’s premium is charged to all purchases. Loudoun County government and school employees are subject to bidding limitations under the auction terms and conditions, which are available on the Public Surplus site.

Loudoun County has specific hours for buyers to pick up their items at 14 Cardinal Park Drive, Suite 106, in Leesburg. Items must be picked up by appointment between 9:00 a.m. and 12 noon or from 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. The dates for items to be picked up are noted on each auction item listed on the Loudoun County auction site. More information about the sale of Loudoun County government surplus items is online at loudoun.gov/surplus.

The current Loudoun County government online surplus auction includes children’s DVDs and Blu-ray Discs and a 2011 Ford Crown Victoria.
