Loudoun County Recycling Center in Hillsboro Closing; Residents Encouraged to Use Hamilton Center

The Loudoun County drop-off recycling center in Hillsboro will close by January 1, 2020.

The current recycling center at the Hillsboro Charter Academy will be removed by the first of the year. Residents of the area are encouraged to begin using the Central Western Loudoun Recycling Center, which is located about six miles from Hillsboro at 38159 Colonial Highway in Hamilton, at the Loudoun County Public Schools Valley Service Center, across the street from Harmony Middle School. Service capacity will be expanded at the Hamilton location, if needed, to support any increase to the collection of recyclables.

Over the long term, Loudoun County is investigating a possible relocation of the Hillsboro recycling center to another site closer to the community.

Loudoun County has several drop-off recycling centers located across the county that accept a wide variety of items for recycling. A complete list of center locations and more information about recycling in Loudoun County may be found at loudoun.gov/recycling.
