Five Things to Know about the November 7, 2017, General Election in Loudoun

1. Know When to Vote

Polls in Loudoun County will be open from 6:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m., Tuesday, November 7, 2017. The last day to vote absentee in person is Saturday, November 4, 2017. Hours and locations for absentee voting are online at www.loudoun.gov/election2017.

2. Know Where to Vote

Most voters in Loudoun will vote at their normal polling location. Not sure where to vote? Look up your polling place and related information online at vote.elections.virginia.gov. Some voters in the Blue Ridge Election District have changed precincts. The move affects about 7,500 voters who originally were in Precinct 313–Pinebrook, Precinct 314–Legacy and Precinct 316–Creighton's Corner. Loudoun voters can check their voting location at www.loudoun.gov/polls.

3. Bring Your Voter ID with You

4. Know Who and What will be on the Ballot

Appearing on the ballot will be the offices of Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General, and all members of the Virginia House of Delegates. There will also be two Loudoun County bond questions. Additionally, voters residing in the towns of Leesburg and Round Hill will vote in a special election to fill vacated Town Council seats. Sample ballots with the candidates and bond questions are online at www.loudoun.gov/election2017.

5. Stay Informed Before, During and After the Election
