“LEND ME A SOPRANO” – OLNEY THEATRE, OLNEY MD

If you missed this great show last season here is another opportunity to see it! Master of comedy and farce, Ken Ludwig, has adapted his Tony Award-winning Broadway hit Lend Me A Tenor for a new generation, with the genders swapped. The hilarious result is Lend Me A Soprano! It's 1934, and world-famous Italian soprano Elena Firenzi, the biggest star of her era, is in town for a one-night-only concert with the Cleveland Grand Opera Company. The gala performance is the apex of general manager Lucille Wylie's career, and she's given her assistant Jo one job – keep Elena away from men and liquor until the curtain rises. But when events spiral out of Jo's control, she's got one chance to set everything right. Have lunch on own prior to show in area restaurant. Price includes show and transportation. Show begins at 1:30pm. Minimum walking. Limited to 27.

“PRIVATE JONES” – SIGNATURE THEATRE – SHIRLINGTON, VA

A world premiere musical inspired by the true story of a deaf Welsh sniper in World War I. Hiding his profound hearing loss, young Gomer Jones fakes his way through enlistment in the army. He becomes a celebrated sniper, but the horrors of the front threaten to expose his secret and destroy his very humanity unless he learns to trust his fellow soldiers to accept who he really is. With an innovative soundscape and a sweeping original score, Private Jones is an unexpectedly funny and gripping musical adventure about service, friendship, and the cost of war. This show uses strong language including expletives, slurs, and ableism. There are depictions of war and death including gunshot and explosive sounds. There is some mild nudity. There is a scene where dogs are harmed.

Have lunch on own prior to show in area restaurant or Theatre Café. Price includes show and transportation. Show starts at 2:00P. Moderate walking. Limited to 27.

TURNING POINT SUFFRAGIST MEMORIAL & LUCY BURNS MUSEUM, LORTON VA

The Turning Point Suffragist Memorial honors the millions of suffragists who fought more than seven decades to win the vote for women. Their story is another hidden piece of women’s history even though it was a national campaign that included incidents of arrests, jail, torture and even death. The garden-style memorial ensures that the suffrage story is elevated to its proper place in history and will educate present and future generations on the need for eternal vigilance for equal rights. Begin your day with a guided tour, followed by lunch included from Brickmakers Café. In the afternoon we continue the story with a tour of the Lucy Burns Museum located in the Workhouse Arts Center. The Workhouse prison held many suffragists, including Dora Lewis and Lucy Burns. The treatment they received here would play a pivotal role in the fight to pass the 19th amendment. #### “ISLANDER” Opt. I – OLNEY THEATRE, OLNEY MD

Winner of Best New Musical at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival, Islander tells a modern myth featuring two actors who use live mixing and looping technology to create a sonic landscape as dramatic as the Scottish coastline. Eilidh is the only child on Kinnan Island, where most of the dwindling population has moved to the “Big Land.” The government has proposed to resettle the rest, and the town must vote soon on whether or not to accept the offer. But the day after a baby whale beaches itself, Eilidh discovers a young girl named Arran along the shore, who seems straight out of Scottish folklore. As the two form a friendship, Islander takes audiences on a magical journey to transcend loss, recover hope, and find community.

NATIONAL SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA, COFFEE CONCERT”, KENNEDY CENTER, DC

Song of the Night: Nosedo conducts Mahler’s Seventh Symphony

Join Gianandrea Nosedo on a wild journey into twilight... Composed in a furious burst of inspiration, the Seventh is Mahler at his most mysterious. Indulgent, elusive, and delightfully raw, the Seventh is a problem child for some conductors, but not Nosedo. From clanging cowbells and titanic brass to intimate midnight mandolin, Mahler’s glamorous, dusk-to-dawn universe is far beyond this world. Preceding each Coffee Concert, a la carte breakfast items will be available for purchase in the KC Café. Concert begins at 11:30AM. Price includes transportation and concert. Moderate walking. Limited to 27
