REPORT OF ZONING TO A MORE INTENSIVE USE

The Code of Virginia § 58.1-3237 requires the owner of any real estate qualified in Land Use Assessment, which has been zoned to more intensive use at the request of the owner or his agent, or otherwise subject to roll back taxes, shall, within sixty days following such change in use or zoning, report such change to the assessing officer on such forms as may be prescribed.

It is the property owner(s) responsibility to report any change in use of a qualified property, including a change to zoning, to the local assessing official within 60 days of such change.
